About the Randolph Civic Association

The Randolph Civic Association (RCA) was formed in 1955 and it is the local community association for residents of the following communities: Randolph Hills, Randolph Farms, Montrose Park, Hilltop Square, and Franklin Park subdivisions. The RCA's focus is keeping residents informed on community events and Montgomery County information, supporting our local Girl Scout, Boy Scout and Cub Scout troops, providing information on legislative and regulatory changes, and building our community. RCA publishes The Echo eight times each year and it is delivered free of charge to all residents in the area marked on the map below. We also have a website where all issues of the Echo are posted at randolphcivic.org.

Terms & Conditions

Advertiser and the Randolph Civic Association (RCA) agree that advertising copy will be published in the RCA's newsletter, the Echo, under the following terms and conditions:

- 1. Publication/Distribution: RCA will publish seven (7) issues of the Echo between September 2017 and June 2018 and will deliver them to all homes in Randolph Hills, Randolph Farms, Hilltop Square, Montrose Park, Franklin Park, and Westminster subdivisions.
- 2. Advertising Copy: Advertiser will furnish ad to the Echo Editor by the deadlines indicated above. Ads are accepted in the following formats: (1) high resolution (press-ready) pdf with fonts embedded (2) high resolution tif, eps, or jpg file (minimum 300 dpi). The Echo cannot assume responsibility for ad quality if ads do not conform to specs. Finalized ads must be submitted to the Echo Advertising Editor, Allison Alexander, at echo@randolphcivic.org. Ads must fit the eighth-page, quarter-page, half-page, or full-page dimensions listed above. If new copy is not received by the deadline, copy from previous month will be used. The Echo is printed in black and white.
- 3. Discount. For full-year contract (7 issues), a 15% discount will be given for pre-paid copy as shown in the prices listed above.
- 4. Payment. Please make checks payable to the "Randolph Civic Association".
- 5. Echo Issues. Advertisers will be emailed a copy of the Echo each month to the email address supplied to the Advertising Editor.
